

Far-Field Voice Session Sequence

The RVS supports optional characteristics to support transferring keyword and beamformer data to an RVS Client for more optimal processing of the audio stream and metrics.

Figure below shows a voice session for a far-field device supporting a keyword detector and end-of-speech detection.

RDK Voice Session - Far Field

